The Rebel

6 0 1

Chapter 1 by Ikapa8

The beginning

It began years upon years ago, when the great war started. The classic battle between light and dark, good and evil, friend and foe. The final battle it seemed as the last battle took place. The leader of light, Ismlac, glanced upon his rival, Goldon. Two of the most powerful mages the world as seen since the great ones roamed the Earth. The two armies, two hundred meters apart stood, waiting, tense and ready to see red. Suddenly, a horn pierced the silence and the armies charged. Swords stabbed and axes beheaded. Arrows found and pierced their target. Magic was flown out of people's hand as fire engulfed others while water drowned damned souls. As the battle was raging, the two great mages stood no less than 10 meters apart. The duel started with a sneaky attack from Goldon as an arrow flew out of his hand and was about to pierce Ismlac in his heart if not for his armour. The final duel began. If you were to see the battle between the two, you would only see white and black ball spinning so fast. It seemed that Ismlac would win until Goldon clutched his dagger of darkness and plunged it into Ismlac's head. The duel has ended, with Goldon the winner, he plunged the world into darkness. The world of Nimeria is forever in darkness until a baby boy named Leon was pulled into this world.
